AREA EXTENDS FROM ROCKY MOUNTAINS TO THE ATLANTIC STATES

Snow And Sleet Driven By High Wind Impedes Traffic In Middle West--Deep Snowfall Reported In Wisconsin And Nebraska--Much Damage Done In Chicago.

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 16.—Snow storms and gales that in many places were reported to be the worst in the history of local weather bureaus swept an area from the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic States today.

Railroad and wire traffic was interrupted in many places and thousands of dollars damage was caused to property and crops.

The worst spring storm in the history of Chicago swept the city, causing injuries to scores of persons and considerable property damage. A fifty mile gale, snow, sleet and rain combined to obstruct traffic and to level communication wires.

Temperatures below freezing were forecast tonight for northern Illinois and adjacent states. The storm is expected to diminish in violence late tomorrow.

The worst blizzard of the year was reported from Wisconsin, where a foot of snow fell in Milwaukee and nearby communities. Traffic of all kinds was delayed. From Nebraska came reports of snow and generally cold weather. Railroad and wire traffic were said to be partially disrupted. Ten to 14 inches of snow fell in the western portion of the state, temperatures were as low as 20 degrees above zero.

All April records were broken in Iowa by the snow storm that began last night and swept the entire state today. Des Moines reported five to six inches of snow in most sections.

Northwest Missouri and North-east Kansas sent word of the worst snow storm on record this late in the season.

Great Damage Done.
Many electric wires were blown down and the damage to fruit trees and gardens is great. The snow storm swept east thru Michigan, carrying with it a great hail storm that was the most severe near Detroit.

Railroad traffic was reported blocked in the Rock Mountain region which was digging itself from eleven to fourteen inches of snow that fell last night.

A statement from the local weather bureau tonight said that indications were that the fruit crop of the central west had been destroyed wherever it was in the path of the storm.

Michigan fruit growers, the statement said, had a chance of saving a part of their crop but little hope was held out for adjacent states.

Storm Shows Signs of Abatement in Wisconsin

Milwaukee, Wis., April 16.—Dispatches received here tonight indicated that the heavy fall of snow and high winds which descended on central and southern Wisconsin last night with resultant damage to crops and demolition of trains, telegraph and telephone operation had begun to abate. It was still snowing and a high wind was blowing at Kenosha, Racine and other southern points but messages from other points to the north and west said the wind had died down and that snow has ceased falling.

Train Jumps Track
An east bound passenger train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad running from Cor- liss to Racine and pulled by two engines jumped the tracks three miles west of Racine this afternoon. The engines and the baggage car left the rails. The passengers were forced to seek shelter at the county asylum for the insane nearby.

At Beloit, the snow was from six to eight inches deep and train cars were kept moving with great difficulty.

Janesville was facing a milk shortage tonight owing to the five feet drifted snow along country roads which made it impossible for trucks or wagons to carry milk from the farms. Street car and interurban service between Janesville and Beloit was completely severed for the first time this winter.

SEVENTY FIVE DIE IN STORM WHICH SWEEPED THE SOUTH

Toll in Five Southern States

HEAVIEST LOSS OF LIFE IN ARKANSAS

(By The Associated Press)
MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 16.—Seventy-five persons reported dead, several hundred injured and property damage roughly estimated in the millions made the toll of a series of tornadoes which broke late yesterday in Northeast Texas and swept eastward today over sections of five states into Georgia.

Arkansas, with fifty persons reported killed in Hempstead and Miller counties suffered the heaviest loss of life. In Alabama the number of dead was estimated at ten, seven were killed in Texas and six in Mississippi. In Tennessee no fatalities were reported.

Owing to interrupted wire communications only fragmentary reports had been received tonight from the sections reported to have suffered the greatest loss.

Relief parties tonight still were searching the storm swept areas and until they report the full toll taken by the wind will not be known.

Storm Broke In Smith County
The storm apparently broke in Smith county, Texas, swept sections of adjoining counties and passed into Miller and Hempstead counties, Arkansas, where the reported dead list tonight had reached thirty.

Crossing into Arkansas the storm skirted Texarkana and cut a swath a half mile wide thru a heavily wooded section of Miller and Hempstead counties.

Near Hope, the list of reported dead tonight had reached 20, fifty others were said to have lost their lives near the town of Prescott, and a like number north of Texarkana.

Leaving Mississippi the storm swooped down again in Northern Alabama where 10 persons lost their lives.

In Birmingham ten persons were injured and a hundred homes in the Northern and Eastern suburbs of that city were damaged. In Memphis a torrential rainstorm damaged street, sewers and drainage canals.

At Rome, Ga., where the storm struck shortly after noon several persons were injured and property damage estimated at $200,000 done.

Heavy Rain In Mississippi
The rainfall in Mississippi was reported the heaviest on record causing considerable damage. Train service thruout the state was disarranged and in some instances suspended because of washouts.

One wreck was reported on a Southern Railway mail train running into a washout near Laurel, Miss., and toppling into a ditch. One passenger was killed. Announcement was made tonight at the headquarters in St. Louis of the Southern Division of the Red Cross that all available resources would be offered for relief of storm sufferers. Relief funds have been started at Hope, Ark., to afford immediate relief to the victims in that state.

SAYS POLICY OF U. S. BECOMING EXPLICIT

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, April 17.—The Sunday Observer commenting on President Harding's message says:

"We have every reason to be glad of the developments in Washington. The American policy is becoming explicit."

It insists the discussions between America and the allies relative to peace settlements shall be thru direct exchanges, declaring:

"In the battle of notes we shall not get beyond a bland and reiterated assertion of rights; we shall not reach the central question of obligations and how far we are prepared to share them."

"In the matter of obligations the initiative has passed to the United States."

INVOLUNTARY PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY FIELD

Chicago, April 16.—An involuntary petition in bankruptcy against the firm of Singer & Schaffer, whose warehouse was wrecked by an explosion in which six persons were killed several weeks ago, was filed in federal court today. The petitioners, the George Young company, soap manufacturers, and the Sunbeam Chemical company, seek to recover an alleged debt of $1,000.

CONDITIONS ARE NOT SO STRAINED IN ENGLAND NOW

Country Faces Week End
With More Hope Than
Was True Week Ago

EVERYBODY STILL ON COAL RATION

LONDON, April 16.—(By The Associated Press)—Altho still confronted with the strike in the coal mines and the possibility that work in the pits will not be resumed for several days at least, England faced this week somewhat more hopefully than it did the last, when it was threatened with sympathetic strikes by the two other branches of the triple alliance—the railwaymen and transport workers.

All labor quarters tonight were discussing yesterday's action by the railwaymen and transport workers in calling off their strikes and the effect of this move on the future interests of labor.

The best hope for an early solution of the crisis is held to lie in the new attitude for an independent investigation shown by a large section of the house of commons.

It is even supposed in some quarters that it was the sympathy which these members displayed on Thursday while listening to Frank Hodges the "miners' federation secretary which led him to go further than he originally intended in the direction of a compromise and so brought him into conflict with the miners."

In view of the possibility of a protracted stoppage of mining operations the board of trade tonight issued instructions for drastic enforcement of the regulations regarding the use of coal, light and power. No further move by the miners is expected before the conference in London next Friday, when representatives of miners thruout the country will discuss what shall be done.

Army of Lobbyists.
Declaring that never before had the national capital "attracted menacing an army of lobbyists seeking from the representatives of the people unjust concessions to special interests," Senator LaFollette named nineteen great combinations of financial power which maintain active organizations in Washington.

Among the organizations mentioned were the United States Chamber of Commerce; National Association of Manufacturers, American Association of Meat Packers, National Coal Association, Wholesale Coal Dealers Association, National Lumber Manufacturers Association, National Association of Protection of Rights in Mexico, National Canners Association, National Association of Real Estate Boards, American Rail Way Association; Association of Railway Securities Holders and the Association of Railway Executives.

Weapon Is Personal Influence
The senator charged that the first weapon of these organizations is personal influence and added:

"The high salaried agents of the packers, coal associations and the other great trusts and monopolies, cultivate the acquaintance of the individual members of congress. They shower him with compliments. They give him flattering publicity in their trade journals. They flood his offices with data and statistics plausibly setting forth their side of every public question."

Adoption by congress of a fixed percentage return which forced the interstate commerce commission to increase the annual transportation bill of the nation by hundreds of millions of dollars Senator LaFollette said was "a striking example of the enormous power which can be marshaled by a single interest."

To meet "this intolerable situation" the senator urged support of "the people's legislative service," comprising representatives of labor organizations, progressive farm organizations and leaders of liberal opinion the prime object of which, he said, was to keep watch on and analyze legislation with a publicity division to inform the people.

Reports from Petrograd say the Mensheviks, or minority, altho continuing their propaganda among the workers have abandoned direct attempts to overturn the soviet, apparently realizing the impossibility of doing so, but they are obliging Nikolai Lenin, the soviet premier, to make concession after concession.

SECRET CLAUSE SAID

KROVNO, Lithuania, April 16.—The Lithuanian foreign office today said it had been informed from an excellent source of the existence of a secret clause in the peace treaty between Poland and Soviet Russia under which Russia is to be permitted to have a free hand in Letvia in return for a promise not to interfere with Polish aggression against Lithuania. The existence of the secret clause has been denied officially by the Moscow governments.

ARMY OF LOBBYISTS MENACE TO NATION

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 16.—The great issue before the American people today is the control of their own government, Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin declared in an address tonight to the founders of the People's legislative service.

"A mighty power has been built in this country in recent years, so strong, yet so insidious and far reaching in its influence," Senator LaFollette said, "that men are gravely inquiring whether its iron grip on government and business can ever be broken."

"Again and again it has proven strong enough to nominate the candidate for high parties. It has dominated the organization, of legislative bodies and of the committees which frame legislation. Its influence has been felt in cabinets and in the policies of administrations and has been clearly seen in the appointment of prosecuting officers and selection of judges. This great power which has taken from the American people the control of their government is the product of monopoly and organized greed."

SOCIETY OF FRIENDS REPORT $20,000,000 DAMAGE IN IRELAND

One Hundred Thousand Men, Women and Children Who Never Took Any Part in the Armed Activities are Suffering—Much Malicious Damage Done in City of Dublin

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 16.—The American committee for relief in Ireland tonight made public a report of an investigation of conditions in Ireland by a unit of the Society of Friends in which the Quakers asserted that material damage "inflicted by the British forces within the past twelve months amounts to approximately $20,000,000."

The unit sent to Ireland by the committee in February, also reported there were "25,000 families numbering approximately 100,000 men, women and children, in pitiful need of instant help from the American people."

These 100,000 people, said the report, were composed "entirely of men and women who have steadfastly refrained from taking part in armed activities."

The report, the result of extensive investigation in nearly one hundred communities thruout 22 of the 32 counties, was made public, officials of the American committee said in order that the American people may have the opportunity of judging by this first hand evidence of unbiased witnesses the extent of the destitution and suffering which the American committee is confident, they with their traditional generosity will tend to alleviate.

The report did not include an official estimate of material damage done to Dublin, Ireland, since between October 1920 and March 1921, the claims for malicious injuries, including both material damage and death presented to the county court for Dublin have amounted to $94,899 pounds.

Twenty Million Damage.
The unit's figures of $20,000,000 material damage in Ireland, the report said, coincided substantially with the total figures collected by Irish Republican statisticians and it should be noted are less by $8,000,000 than the estimate given us by a responsible crown official who is informed in regard to the data in the possession of the crown.

The distress which we ourselves witnessed in, we here emphasize a distress quite separate and distinct from that distress which arises in Ireland from unemployment due to general trade depression; it is separate and distinct from the distress arising from long continued poverty such as we may observe in the slums of New York, Chicago, or London; it is wholly separate and distinct from the economic distress of Irish women and children whose male relatives may be engaged in armed opposition to the British military forces operating in Ireland.

The report estimated that to repair the $20,000,000 damage to Irish shop buildings, factories, chambers and private dwellings, houses, would cost $25,000,000 unless the cost of labor and materials was greatly reduced.

Regarding labor conditions in the class of distressed people covered in the investigation the report said:

"We may point out that even when employed the workman in Ireland receives a wage so low that it would be difficult for an American to understand how its Irish workman can support himself and his family upon such a wage."

"The present prevailing wage for ordinary unskilled labor ranges from $9 to $14 a week. Today the 25,000 families to which we refer have not even this scanty income. From the crippling of the co-operative creameries in Ireland, 15,000 farmers who supplied these creameries with milk for butter and cheese making are suffering severe losses are faced with even more deeply serious distress in the immediate future. The report added.

FIRE PROTECTION.

It is now proposed that the services of the Chicago fire department will be offered to cities and towns located within a reasonable radius of the big city on a per mile basis. The fact is that in case of fire danger in the past that emergency calls have been sent to the Chicago department and the service given without remuneration.

It is now proposed to still under the service but to do it on a business basis. This is logical action for there is no particular reason why the property of one community should be taxed to provide protection for another.

NOT ALARMING.

In several counties of Illinois it is said that the take-all disease has been discovered in the wheat. If first reports are substantiated the wheat crop in these counties will be short. This announcement will not alarm the farmers nearly as much as it would have done a year ago, for wheat is now quoted at less than half the earlier figure.

Then there are producers who feel that they would be benefited by conditions like those that prevail in Georgia, where the cotton growers have cut the acreage 40 per cent.

APPLIED COMMON SENSE.

If Postmaster General Hayes keeps up the application of common sense principles to the postal department in accordance with the beginning he has made, the years of his service will make up a wonderful record. Now to help put an end to wholesale robberies of the mail, a large cash reward has been offered to each employee who catches a mail robber.

This order was the result of the report showing mail robberies last year were aggregating

$7,000,000 and supplements the order which armed many of the mail clerks. True, any department head could have given the reward order which sounds like a commonplace and a natural thing, but the fact remains that the official Mr. Hayes succeeded had not thought of this expedient.

George Moore, Republican aldermanic candidate in the third ward, in seeking re-election is standing on his record. Mr. Moore has served upon important committees in the council during the past two years and has given evidence of his earnest desire to act in the interest of his constituents and for the whole city. His record entitles him to re-election.

IMMIGRATION ON A ROYALTY BASIS.

Evidently in Australia the immigration question has phases entirely different from those which confront the U. S. While there is a great cry in some instances for further restriction of immigration, the Australian government offers to pay a liberal sum toward the transportation of any desirable immigrant for that country.

MISS MOUNT QUALIFIED FOR CITY CLERK.

Miss Genevieve Mount, Republican candidate for city clerk, is entirely qualified for the position that she is seeking. Miss Mount in addition to business college training has had twelve years experience in bookkeeping, accounting and stenographic work. If given a majority of votes in the election Tuesday, Miss Mount will enter upon the duties of the office with enthusiasm and will be found unfailingly conscientious. Those who had business relationships with the Morgan county exemption board during the war time know that Miss Mount is efficient and understands well the courtesy to which the public is entitled.

THE VALUE OF HANDICAPS.

Tommy Clack, a fourteen year old lad, was born without hands. Today he is a painter of pictures and excels in many activities in which others with all their physical powers make but a poor showing.

So this is just another instance in proof of the often made statement that it makes little difference about the advantages or disadvantages which one confronts, if there is the spirit to excel and to really accomplish things. Many a man with seemingly severe handicaps has found them a real blessing—an incentive to work and to the accomplishment of things.

forded of the accepted belief that during the administration of Mayor Crabtree there has been constant adherence to the motto: "Everything for the good of Jacksonville" than the fact that there was no opposition to the present mayor in the primary election.

In consequence, the name of no candidate for the majority other than that of Mr. Crabtree will appear on the ballot in the election Tuesday. With this condition existing, it has been inevitable that there should be no show interest in the election.

Notwithstanding these circumstances men and women of this city who approve the course of the administration and who believe that Mr. Crabtree and his associates have kept an eye single to public interests should show that belief by voting in the election Tuesday.

The polls will be open from 7 to 5 o'clock and the polling places will be as usual. It has been a distinct sacrifice for Mr. Crabtree to devote his time to the office of mayor during the past two years. One way to show appreciation of that fact and of his willingness to serve again will be by "your vote."

WILL RE-ORGANIZE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Local Business Men Have Arranged With American City Bureau for Work Here.

Henry Frisch was notified yesterday that the organization crew representing the American City Bureau will come to Jacksonville on April 25. Mr. Frisch and a group of business men recently arranged with the bureau for the organization of a Chamber of Commerce in Jacksonville. The members of the crew who are coming here are now engaged in the same line of work at Topeka, Kans.

The American City Bureau specializes in Chamber of Commerce organization work. Under the bureau plan its connection with chambers of commerce it organizes continues thru a period of three years.

The Jacksonville business men made some careful investigation about the success of the bureau in other cities before making the arrangements for the try-out of the plan in Jacksonville.

Michael McGinnis, candidate for alderman in the First Ward will appreciate your vote at the election Tuesday.

A telegram from Chicago yesterday brought news of the marriage of Russell Hull, of 402 Caldwell street, and Miss Lillian Smith of 121 East Morton avenue, of this city. The young people are among the many who went to Jacksonville on the excursion and their friends had not been informed that the marriage would be at this time, altho they knew of the engagement.

The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Smith, is well and favorably known in Jacksonville. After graduating at the Jacksonville high school, she took a position as bookkeeper at the Cherry Service station which she has filled acceptably.

Mr. Hull, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hull, is also a high school graduate. He was prominent in athletics in his student days. Now he is a salesman for the Jenkins-Bode Wholesale Co. and has the good opinion of his employers and friends. These estimable young people have given their friends a surprise but the congratulations extended will be none the less hearty.

THE ROBIN'S CALL

A voice pealed thru the air What was that sound we heard Hark! It is a robin A red breasted bird.

What is that he sings On this cheery morn? That's a voice I can translate For his food he sings for corn.

He is a pet of the family With corn we feed him every day In the evening again he comes for food And then he flies away.

Sometimes he comes in the house And eats from our table. We let him eat as much As he thinks he is able.

The warbling of his song fills the air While we stand listening. And we forget our work, his feathers Are in the sunshine glistening.

But now when autumn comes We say he takes his way. While to his sobbing song we bid him

To come again another day. Bertha Louise Thies, age 11, The child who wrote the lines above is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Thies, living south of the city.

WILL INCREASE

"COB PIPE" CORN ACREAGE

Mention was made of the success John Cain has made in raising a special kind of corn to produce large cobs for use in a pipe factory. It seems that the acreage in Morgan county for this particular kind of corn will be greatly increased, as F. L. Sharpe, who is a representative of the National Cob Pipe Works or Union, Mo., has already sold sufficient seed for the planting of 700 acres. The use of the cobs this year for pipe purposes has meant an extra return of from $15 to $18 per acre, and that fact is influencing farmers to use the special seed which will mean a corn crop usable for pipe purposes.

INSPECTION OF COMPANY THIS WEEK

Local Militia Will Be Inspected for Federalization Wednesday Evening—Will Drill Tomorrow Evening.

Capt. Wesley James announced last night that he had received word from the adjutant general's office that officers would be here this week to inspect Company K. The company now has the necessary number of men and it is to be hoped that it will get recognition and be federalized. When this is done the members will begin to draw pay for each drill.

Tomorrow night is regular drill night and Capt. James hopes that every member will be on hand as it is important that the company be in best of shape for inspection. He also stated that he would like to secure two ex-service men for sergeants and would be glad if they will report at the Armory Monday evening.

G. A. Sieber has commenced the work of rewiring the hall and placing new lights. When the work is completed the hall will be one of the best lighted in the city. Capt. James also said the public is cordially invited to attend all drills as the presence of citizens shows interest in the company and is an incentive to the men.

THE GREATEST LOVE AT LUTTRELL'S MONDAY

As its special feature attraction Monday and Tuesday, Luttrell's theatre presents "The Greatest Love," a Select Picture starring Vera Gordon, noted de-lucator of "mother" parts for the screen. While the dominating theme is mother love, the arrest and conviction of the son on circumstantial evidence lends a gripping suspense to the plot which is maintained to the end.

With the story opening in the steerage of a transatlantic liner, later showing the family settled in the ghetto during the first years of their life in America and their subsequent removal to a fashionable neighborhood in New York City, there is a diversity of scenes and characters which greatly adds to the interest of this excellent picture.

In this new story of mother love and sacrifice Vera Gordon has even greater scope than she had in "Humoresque," where her characterization of the mother was the feature of the piece. She is supported by a cast of well known players. In the early scenes Bobby Connelly and Dot Williams play the parts of little immigrant children, newly arrived, mingling with the children of all nations in the East Side

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Chinch Bug Barriers—At the Farm Advisors' Conference at Springfield, W. P. Flint mentioned four types of barriers. Creosote, coal tar, kerosene and salt or kerosene and limestone, dusty furrow. The most practical barrier depends upon the nature of soil, availability of material and price of material. He thinks that arrangements should be made for these supplies with dealers early this year. Every one seems to think that we are in for trouble with the chinch bug this season. In all probability we shall notice them first in the poorest wheat and the land that has been the least fertilized. Its wise economy to plant soybeans in every hill of corn, so that if the bugs take the corn there will still be another crop on the land.

Corn Root Rot—We are making arrangements for a demonstration plot in this county to show the effect of planting diseased and diseased free corn. We have asked the assistance of the crop extension department of the college of agriculture in staging this demonstration.

Assessors Blanks—Every farmer in the county is requested to give the statistical information asked for by the county assessors this season. It will not be used in any way for the purpose of taxation. A great deal of this information was asked for by representatives of the farmers organization in order that they might work out a better system of marketing livestock.

A Good Record—Morgan County lead the Counties in the State in the matter of prompt payment of farm bureau dues in March. We had a record of 99 per cent. We suspect that the high quality of our membership is responsible for our promptness in meeting these obligations. The treasurer of the I. A. A. sent us a very complimentary letter in regard to the matter.

Farm Bureau Budget—President Charles S. Black attended the Farm Advisor conference in Springfield on Friday and took part in the discussion. Mr. Black has appointed a committee to plan the farm bureau budget for this coming year. Farm bureaus everywhere recognize the need of carrying on their business in the same way as other careful business organizations. In adopting budget system Morgan County is falling into line with the other counties.

Feeding Test Alfalfa and Timothy Hay—To determine the relative value of alfalfa and timothy hay as dairy feed, sixteen cows, producing on the average about 30 pounds of milk per day, were divided into two even lots. One lot was fed 10 pounds of alfalfa and the other 10 pounds of timothy hay per cow per day, the remaining portion of the ration being the same for both lots. After the first test the cows which had been fed alfalfa were changed to timothy. The records show that the cows produced about 10 per cent more milk on alfalfa than on timothy hay. The difference in production was 834 pounds of milk increase in favor of each ton of alfalfa hay over a ton of timothy.

According to these results, when milk is selling for $3 a hundred pounds, alfalfa hay is worth $25 a ton more than timothy as feed for dairy cows. Since timothy hay will yield about 1½ tons per acre and alfalfa over 2½ tons, we see something of the increased earning power of an acre of alfalfa over an acre of timothy.

Besides the greater return in milk, the condition of the cows counts for much. At the end of each period the cows fed alfalfa hay were in much better condition than those fed timothy. The timothy, altho of good quality, was not palatable and the cows receiving it lost in flesh and were in poor condition generally. Where cows are fed timothy hay for an entire winter, the ration must be supplemented with rich protein feeds, or the cows will be in an untimely condition in the spring. On the other hand, cows fed alfalfa are nearly sleek and thrifty.

WOMAN-AVOIDS AN OPERATION

Hope Nearly Gone, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her

Star, N. C.—"My monthly spells gave me so much trouble, sometimes they would last two weeks. I was treated by two doctors without relief and they both said I would have to have an operation. I had my trouble four years and was unfit to do anything and had given up all hope of ever getting any better. I read about your medicine in the 'Primitive Paptist' paper and decided to try it. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills for about seven months and now I am able to do my work. I shall never forget your medicine and you may publish this if you want to as it is true."—Mrs. J. F. Huxsey, Star, N. C.

Here is another woman who adds her testimony to the many whose letters we have already published, proving that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound often restores health to suffering women even after they have gone so far that an operation is deemed advisable. Therefore it will surely pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to try it.

DOROTHY DALTON IN "HALF AN HOUR."

Grand Theatre Monday and Tuesday

Lady Lillian, beautiful, aristocratic daughter of the Earl of Westford, is literally sold to Richard Garson, an immensely wealthy bourgeois, in order to save her and it gives him a sense of pride to know that he was able to purchase a titled wife. Lillian makes no pretense of loving him and her cold manner so enrages him that he treats her brutally in spite of his love for her.

Lady Lillian has an affair with Hugh Paton, a member of the same class as she, who has been reduced to the working class because of poverty. After a particularly irritating session with her husband she telephones Hugh that she is ready to go away with him. He tells her they will start for Egypt in half an hour and for her to meet him at his apartment.

Lillian writes a note to Garson telling him she is going away with Hugh and puts this with her jewels in the desk drawer in the living room. Garson in the meantime is having a telephone conversation with Dr. George Brodie, an old friend of his who has just returned to England, and invites him to dine with them at 8 o'clock. It is now 7:30.

Through utmost effort Lillian reaches Hugh's apartment in a few minutes. It is evident that while the step she is about to take means a great deal in Lillian's life it is nothing out of the ordinary for Hugh.

Hugh goes out to call a cab to take Lillian and himself to the station. Taking advantage of his absence, Susie, his maid, tells Lillian that he makes a habit of taking women with him on his travels. Lillian is astonished at this revelation of Hugh's character and is about to question Susie when they are interrupted by a great commotion in the hall. Dr. Brodie, Richard's friend, is carrying the body of Hugh and tells Lillian that the man was killed by a taxi. Dr. Brodie asks Lillian if she is Mrs. Paton. She nods in the negative and he tells her to leave the house immediately to avoid publicity.

Lillian hurries madly home and tries to open the desk to get her jewels and note before her husband discovers them. She finds the drawer locked and in despair decides to go to her room and dress and make the best of it all.

When Lillian comes down to dinner she finds Dr. Brodie telling her husband and the other guests about the accident which detained him. He recognizes Lillian immediately but does not betray her. Richard's curiosity is aroused as to the identity of the woman and both he and the other guests suspect Lillian. Lillian in the meantime manages to get her notes from the desk drawer. Richard failing to find evidence of Lillian's guilt begs her pardon for suspecting her. After the guests depart Lillian confesses that she was the woman, and with a new understanding between herself and her husband they decide to start life together anew.

NOMINATIONS FOR LABOR BOARD ARE SENT TO SENATE

Are Considered Particularly Important at This Time

McMENIMEN, HIGGINS AND HOOPER NAMED

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 16.—Nominations to fill three vacancies on the railroad labor board considered particularly important because of the controversy between the roads and their employees, were sent to the senate today by President Harding.
As labor's representative the president nominated Walter L. McMenimen, acting president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and a prominent figure in recent railroad negotiations. Samuel Higgins of New York, a former general manager of New York, New Haven and Hartford railway was named to represent the management group, while former Governor Ben W. Hooper of Tennessee was given the vacant place allotted to a representative of the public.

"Coughing and expectorating," Dr. Robertson said, "are among the commonest spreaders of disease germs."
"If a man hit you, you would hit back in defense. Now if a man coughs in your face or sneezes at you hit him a smash in the nose."
"You will probably be arrested. Tell the judge you were defending yourself against the pneumonia crook, the germ. If he fines you, I'll pay it."

WILL SUBMIT NEW PROPOSALS TO U. S.

BERLIN, April 16.—The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung today advises the public not to expect information in the reparations question until parliament has decided on it.
The Zeitung Am Mittag says it understands the government is utilizing the good offices of a neutral power to submit new reparations proposals to the United States for the latter's opinion, as the proposals partly consist of an offer by Germany to assume some of the allied debts to the United States, whose consent must be obtained.

Stockholm, April 16.—The Svenska Morgonbladet today denies that Sweden is involved in the proposed mediation of a neutral power between Germany and the United States with regard to reparations.

CHECKING UP ON EMPLOYEES

Railroad department managers are keeping a closer line than ever before on labor expenditures. This is shown quite clearly in the Decatur shops of the Wabash. The law provides that employees shall be allowed two hours with pay on election day in order to permit their voting. Three hundred employees claimed this two hour privilege and now an investigation is being made to ascertain just how many of them voted. The checking up process thus far indicates that one third of those who took the time off actually went to the polls.

(By The Associated Press)

Washington, April 16.—Boys' hood days of President Harding when he used to slip off to the old swimming hole in the creek near Caledonia, Ohio, were recalled by him today in a reply to a letter in lead pencil from 12 year old John D. Wackerman, of this city.

The president's letter was in answer to an appeal from John that he attend a ball given by the ladies of the community house for the benefit of a swimming pool for boys. In explaining that he had been asked by his playmates to write the president, John said:

"Mr. President, we want a swimming pool just like you would if you were a boy so please come. I told the boys that I did not believe any president would let the boys go without a swimming pool when he could let us have it by paying 50 or 75 cents for a ticket for a ball. If you come everybody will come and we can have our swimming pool, so please come."

In a postscript John added: "please write me a letter and let us know. The fellows are so discouraged to think we can't have a pool."

In his reply the president wrote: "My Dear John: I received your letter this morning, saying that the boys were very much disappointed because they had heard I could not attend the ball in the interest of your swimming fund. I am exceedingly glad you wrote to me about this, John, because I do not want the boys to think I am not interested in their getting a swimming pool. I have used swimming pools myself, in my time and there are one or two swimming pools in the creek out near Caledonia, Ohio, that I would like to get into again right now, if it were possible."

"You tell the boys that I hope the ball will raise all the money that is needed to provide the pool and that if some of you will come around to the white house with some tickets, I will buy some, whether I can come or not."

Yours for the swimming pool, (Signed) "Warren G. Harding."

HEALTH WEEK PLANS
NOW MATURING

Ministers Will Talk on Health Themes From Pulpits—Special Line of Work for Each Day.

Public health week observance will begin in Jacksonville today. Rev. W. H. Marbach was chairman of the committee which called the attention of ministers to the week and asked that some mention be made from the pulpits. It is likely that this request will be complied with.

Mrs. J. W. Clary is chairman for Monday, "clean-up day" and while a house-to-house canvass will not be made, an executive committee had been appointed and a good deal of inspection work will be done. If the members of the committee find premises that need cleaning they will so notify the general committee chairman. In cases where persons are not financially or physically able to attend to this work, the assistance of the Boy Scouts will be secured.

Tuesday is "rodent day" with Dr. A. M. King, city health warden, as chairman. A bounty will be offered for rats and mice killed during the week and it is expected that some special prizes will be offered also.

Wednesday will be "better babies" day, with the program in charge of Dr. Milligan. Announcement will be made later of the headquarters where babies may be taken for weights and measurements.

Miss Maude Ryman, public health nurse, has charge of the Thursday program and announcement of the details for the day will be made later.

Friday is to be devoted to the public health program in connection with the public schools. Supt. H. A. Perrin being the chairman.

Saturday the day's activities relate to physical examination and R. Y. Rowe is chairman. It is possible for persons who hold policies in insurance companies to arrange for complete physical examination and they will be urged to do so.

The purpose of such an examination is to make possible the suggestions for rules which may result in better individual physical condition.

LUTHERANS TO OBSERVE IMPORTANT ANNIVERSARY

The 400th anniversary of Martin Luther's stand before the Diet of Worms, which opened the Reformation, will be commemorated today in the Lutheran church here, and elsewhere according to the statement of Rev. J. G. Kuppler, pastor of the local church.

In characterization of Luther's bold confession before the Diet, the Rev. Henry Kowert, pastor of the oldest Lutheran church in Chicago said recently: "The Diet at Worms was the crisis in the great drama of the Reformation. It marks the end of the Middle Ages and the beginning of the Modern Era in the history of the world. It ushered in the new era, the era of liberty of conscience, liberty of religion, and separation of church and state."

"Luther, already excommunicated on account of his 95 theses and his books on the liberty of conscience and the authority of the Bible alone in all doctrines of faith, was summoned to appear before the Diet by Charles V, the new emperor. At the Diet the demand was made that he retract his books.

"Luther refused. He declared that he could and would not act against his conscience which was bound by the Word of God only."

"The books of Luther were eagerly read and millions accepted his position. The cause of the Reformation grew so fast in a short time that no power on earth could hinder it."

"In our beloved country the principles of the Reformation have come to full maturity. The Honorable John Jay has said, 'No country is more reason than this Republic to recall with joy the blessings Luther assisted to secure for in world emancipating thought and conscience, and impressing upon modern civilization the stamp of Christianity.'"

"The Diet at Worms, Luther's appearance there on the 17th of April, may be considered as the greatest scene of modern European history; the point, indeed, from which the whole subsequent history of civilization takes its rise. The world's pomp and power sits there, on that hand, on that, stands up for God's truth, one man, the poor miner's, Hans Luther's son. One petition—the petition of the world to him was: free us, it rests with you; desert us not. Luther did not desert us."

W. A. BERRYMAN TO SELL COMPRESSION TIRES

William A. Berryman, who was for eight months in the factory of the U. S. Compression Inner Tube Co., at Tulsa, has located in Jacksonville and opened an office in the Farrell Bank building. Mr. Berryman's factory experience gave him the certain proof that the company he now represents has the best article the market affords in the production of puncture proof inner tubes.

The circumference of the compression tube is greater than the inside circumference of the casing. It is moulded with double corrugation on the side and tread. When inflated the corrugations straighten out conforming to the smooth surface of the casing. The result is that instead of stretching the tube the air pressure compresses the rubber made by nails and tacks. Mr. Berryman will have ten counties as his territory and maintain his main office in Jacksonville. The inner tubes are sold with satisfactory guarantee.

JOHN H. RUSSELL, Administrator.WILL ATTEND INITIATION

FUNERAL NOTICE

Funeral services for Maurice Fitch will be held from the residence, Maple Dale west of the city at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in charge of the Rev. Myron L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church. Burial will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

RED CROSS RECREATION WORK*Lodges

There are about 50 lodges in the county outside of Jacksonville. All of these were consulted in regard to community recreation through the medium of a questionnaire. A total of 24, representing all parts of the county, responded. They reported a membership of 1832 and an average attendance of 418 or about 1.3 per cent. If these may be taken as an indication, it is estimated that there are 3500 members for the county population of 17,000.

Judging from the small average attendance at the lodge meetings, members have joined more for the benefits from the lodge than for the recreational opportunities they afford. The people from the towns have joined only in small numbers.

Practically all of the activities are for members, as is to be expected, although a few general entertainments and parties to which others were invited were mentioned. Officers for 16 of the 24 lodges from whom replies were received, said that they would be interested in helping in the development of Boy Scout troops and 7 in Camp Fire groups.

The questionnaire also asked for suggestions regarding the improvement of community recreation for all the people, but except for three towns no suggestions were made. Chapin and Murrayville expressed the need of community centers and said the towns were working for them. Waverly is interested in obtaining grounds for open air sports.

Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls.

The Boy Scout movement has never been thoroughly organized in the county, and most of those troops which were formed there have been short-lived. Recently, however, a new interest has been awakened, and several troops have been organized in the towns. In the event that a county advisory council is formed and a paid scout executive employed, the renewed effort may meet with success.

A few camp fire groups have been organized in the county.

Theatres and Halls.

At least 5 of the 10 important centers in the county have moving picture theatres. The one in Franklin is open three nights a week, and the one in Meredosia two days a week. The films are reported to be fair. During the summer Meredosia is occasionally visited by theatrical companies on boats; these performances are of low grade usually.

Murrayville has a hall at which moving pictures are shown on Wednesday and Saturday nights. The building is available for other purposes and socials, home talent plays, etc., are given there. The class of photoplays is good. Waverly and Chapin have theatres providing mixed programs of photoplays and vaudeville, and the theatre in Chapin an occasional play.

This study of recreation in Jacksonville and Morgan county has revealed many interesting phases of the subject, especially in the country, which we sometimes fail to remember. It has shown the growing interest in developing such activities and the possibility of bringing together various groups for study and action. As a result of this study on the part of a large number of people and agencies, the committee on recreation submits the following recommendations:

1. Acquisition by Jacksonville of lands along the town brook and Mauvaster creek for park and recreation purposes.
2. Establishment of several small parks in Jacksonville convenient to congested districts.
3. Provision for public concerts in the parks of Jacksonville.
4. Establishment of several supervised playgrounds in Jacksonville so as to give all children easy access to a playground, with one large ground equipped for athletic meets centrally located; perhaps adjacent to the proposed County Memorial Auditorium.
5. Supervision of the moving picture houses in the city and county which will compel the showing of better pictures with restrictions as to attendance of children.
6. Restrictions as to admission of young boys to pool rooms in city and county.
7. Development of the parks in Waverly, Franklin and several of the smaller towns and equipment for play and recreation.
8. Development of playgrounds around all school buildings in the county, and supervision of school play wherever possible.
9. Provision by state or county for circulating libraries which will send standard books into rural schools and small towns.
10. Extension of Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls' organizations, and establishment of clubs for farm boys and girls.
11. Establishment of community houses in the small towns.

VERA GORDON

The "Mother in 'Humoresque,' in

"The Greatest Love"

"The Greatest Love" possesses not only human interest to an unusually high degree, but a baffling mystery which holds up the suspense of the story to the end. Mother love is its dominant characteristic, and the rise of the little immigrant family from poverty to power in the new land of opportunity, later followed by tragedy and humiliation, constitute a cross section of life which might be met just around any corner of a big city. In this new story of Mother Love and sacrifice Vera Gordon has even greater scope than was afforded in "Humoresque" where her characterization was the feature of the piece. A well and favorably known cast of screen artists is her support.

She did not miss a lesson, and had her regular hours of play out doors after school. Yet every evening a delicious supper was ready for Dad's return, cooked by "Lorain." Here is a practical example of the value of the "Lorain." An example which every woman will appreciate.

FREE FOR ALL TROT WILL FEATURE MEET

Cleveland Will Have $15,000 Stake for Trotters—Peter Manning and Arion Guy are Barred.

CLEVELAND, O., April 16.—A free for all trot, with a valuation of $15,000, making it the richest event on the grand circuit, will be the feature stake event of the second grand circuit meeting here this season which begins at North Randall Monday August 8.

The North Randall purse may be said to be the richest of its kind that has ever been raced on a Grand Circuit track exclusive of the Kentucky futurity in 1896, and two special stake events that were staged in connection with the Pan-American exposition at San Francisco and the Readville handicap for $50,000 in 1908.

In the interest of the sport in general two horses, Peter Manning and Arion Guy have been barred from this event. Peter Manning, 12:02 1-2 is conceded to be practically unbeatable and his entry would undoubtedly limit the field materially. The barring of Arion Guy was insisted upon by his owner, H. K. Devereux, president of the Grand Circuit, who did not think it would be fair to bar Peter Manning and let his own trotter start. Outside of this pair there is not a trotter in training that is not eligible to start, and it is expected that nearly 50 of the fastest trotters will be entered.

The event will be raced on the three heat plan under the rules of the Union Trotting Association. Four moneys will be awarded, $7,500 to the winner, $3,850 to the second horse, $2,250 to the third horse and $1,500 to the fourth horse.

The North Randall management announces the championship stallion stake of the American Association of trotting horse breeders, valued at $12,000 will also be contested during the August meeting.

CLEVELAND'S STAR HURLER
"Duster" Mails who showed excellent form in the training camp. Speaker is counting on the left hander for many victories.

PENNSYLVANIA HAS FAMOUS ROWING SHELL

Is Presented With Four Oared Shell Which Was Used to Win Two Championships—Was Built in 1869.

PHILADELPHIA, — (By The Associated Press)—A four-oared shell, in which two world's rowing championships and a number of national championships were won, has just been presented to the Philadelphia Barge club by Ellis F. Ward, former rowing coach of the University of Pennsylvania.

Built in 1869, the thin cedar craft had been in continuous use until two years ago and is still in good condition and the a little narrow, has been used as a model by boat builders in this country for years. It is 42 feet long.

Originally the shell was built for an English crew, the Renfords, who rowed against the Parris crew of St. Johns, New Brunswick, for the world's championship. This was the first race in which the shell was used and the English crew won. The boat was named the "Dunstan-on-Tyne."

Shortly afterward the shell was purchased by the mayor of Pittsburgh as a souvenir. In 1871 another match was arranged for the championship of the world, to be held at Saratoga Lake. Ellis Ward and his brothers had gained the reputation of being the best American blade wielders, but were without a shell. They ordered a new boat from Robert Jewett, of England, who built the "Dunstan-on-Tyne" but he disappointed them. Shortly afterwards they received a telegram from the Mayor of Pittsburgh offering to sell them the "Dunstan-on-Tyne." The Wards accepted. They found the boat narrow and "hard to seat up," but they soon mastered it.

The race was rowed over a four mile course, and the Wards won, setting a new record of 24 minutes, 40 seconds, which still stands. The Ward crew was seated as follows: Ellis Ward, bow, 150 pounds; Gilbert Ward, No. 2, 155 pounds; Josh Ward, No. 3, 165 pounds and Henry Ward stroke, 158 pounds. The average age was 32½ years. Ellis being 25 while Henry was 45.

JAP BASEBALL TEAM TO MAKE LONG TOUR

Waseda University Will Play Clear Across Continent—Play in Springfield May 22.

CHICAGO, April 16.—Waseda University of Japan has arranged the greatest tour of American colleges this spring that a Japanese team has ever taken. It is announced by the University of Chicago athletic authorities. The team from Nippon will play clear across the country to the Atlantic meeting Yale and Harvard.

The visitors will be in charge of the "father of baseball in Japan," Prof. Iso Abe, dean of the college and professor of political economy at the Tokyo university.

An incident of the arrangements is that middle western games were scheduled by Waseda's first baseball coach, Prof. Fred Merrifield of the University of Chicago, who this year is coaching the Chicago team. A number of years ago when Prof. Merrifield was teaching in Waseda he introduced many of the finer points of the game to the Japanese college world, and last year piloted a Maroon team back to Japan.

Just now the Japanese squad is getting into shape in the Hawaiian Islands. It sailed from Yokohama on March 18th, planned to spend a month playing ball around Honolulu and to arrive in San Francisco on April 28.

Postponing its Pacific Coast games until the close of its tours so as to catch the middle western and eastern college teams before college closes, the invaders will push on quickly to Chicago. They are due here on May 7. The schedule from that time on follows:

May 10 at U. of Chicago.
May 11 at Northwestern.
May 12 at Purdue.
May 13 at Butler College, Indianapolis.
May 16 at Indiana University.

A GREAT PICTURE

We feel sure that you would not want to miss a thing that will be the talk of the town a few days from now. This is why we wish to remind you that on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at Scott's theatre there will be shown one of the most remarkable and forceful motion pictures that has yet been produced—"The North Wind's Malice," by Rex Beach. For broad sweep, originality of plot and intense dramatic appeal it surpasses anything that has appeared in recent months. In presenting "The North Wind's Malice," by this famous author we are offering you an evening's entertainment you will long remember.

How often have you tired of the monotony of things—the same trivial habits every day, the same traits of character the same dull methods of pursuing a livelihood? Yes, all about you is diversity of life, a diversity denied to the people of the great northlands, shut in by ice and snow and tortured by the mournful roar of the north winds.

This same theme has been made the under-theme of a powerful drama by Rex Beach, "The North Wind's Malice." It pictures graphically in its tale of romance the maddening influence of monotony on the faint nerves of the men and women who live their simple but rugged lives in the arid wastes of Alaska.

We want you to see "The North Wind's Malice," for aside from its powerful dramatic appeal it presents a new outlook on the life of the sturdy northlanders, an outlook that is picturesque, unusual and fascinating in character.

No need to say more of Rex Beach. He has long been proclaimed America's foremost writer.

The Clover Leaf Booster club gave a dinner Saturday evening in the club rooms on East State street. The dinner was prepared and served by the members of the collection department. There were about fifty people present and at six-thirty a delicious menu was served, consisting of veal loaf, creamed potatoes, peas, hot rolls, pickles, banana salad, coffee and peaches with whipped cream.

After supper, the many guests had a royal good time spending the evening with games and dancing. This affair was one of the series of delightful and successful dinners being given by the Clover Leaf Boosters club.

Agora Society

Gives Dinner Dance

The Colonial Inn was the scene of a delightful dinner dance given last evening by the members of the Agora society of Illinois College. Covers were laid for fifty-six and at eight o'clock a delicious four course dinner was served. The dining room of the Inn was artistically decorated with spring flowers giving a charming appearance to the scene. Miss Sylvia Taylor, president of the society, acted as toastmistress and the following excellent toasts were given: "Inter-Society Friendships" by Ed Theis, "Good Times in Society" by Winifred Butcher, "Society Ambitions" by Bernard Frazier and "Ties of Agora" by Grace Marshall.

After dinner the rest of the evening was spent in dancing to excellent music by a five piece orchestra. The committee in charge of the dance included Miss Grace Hopper, Miss Beulah Rose, Miss Grace Marshall and Miss Hazel McCormick. This delightful dance was one of the most charming college events of the season.

C. F. JOY'S FUNERAL HELD SATURDAY

Former Congressman Knew That His Death Was Near and Arranged All Funeral Details.

Harold Joy was in St. Louis yesterday to attend the funeral of his uncle, Charles F. Joy, former congressman, and who for fourteen years was recorder of deeds in St. Louis. The St. Louis Post-Dispatch gives the following facts about the funeral:

"The Mr. Joy remarked that he did not understand what was carrying him away, as he felt well, he realized that his illness of many months was nearing an end, so shortly after arranging that his wife should be appointed Recorder of Deeds following his resignation, he took up the details of his funeral with his chief deputy, Walter A. Ehrler, in the presence of Mrs. Joy. From time to time in succeeding days he discussed with Ehrler and Mrs. Joy arrangements as his desire in that regard came to him.

"Joy broached the subject by handing to Ehrler a typewritten list of the men whom he desired to act as pallbearers, honorary and active.

"The sick man next gave instructions that the funeral should take place from the Waggoner undertaking parlors at 3621 Olive street and mentioned as a matter of course that the services would be directed by the Masons and Elks. He said that he wanted the Rev. Samuel H. Woodrow of Pilgrim Congregational church to officiate and added that he desired that his life-long friend, Lee Meriwether, should speak also at the funeral. At that instant a knock at the door of the hospital room came and Meriwether entered.

"Joy immediately related to him the topic of conversation. Meriwether protested against Joy's considering such an eventuality as death, but Joy informed him that he knew well that he had not long to live and repeated the request.

Meriwether thereupon said that he would do anything asked of him.

"Very well, then," Joy remarked, "that's settled."

"He next requested that his remains be cremated and, in considering a place of burial of his ashes, acceded to a suggestion that, if possible, they be placed in Elks' Rest, a burial plot in Bellefontaine cemetery.

"Some days afterward he instructed Ehrler to take from a drawer in his desk at the city hall a silk flag, which, on rare occasions, he would hang upon the wall in his office. He said that his mother had made the flag for him when he was a boy and that it was very dear to him. "Place it around me in some fashion," he said, "or place it in my casket and let it be reduced to ashes with my body." The first portion of the request was followed, but Federal laws forbidding the destruction of a National flag by burning, it was learned.

LIGHT VOTE AT SCHOOL ELECTION SATURDAY

A very light vote was cast in the Jacksonville school election Saturday. This seeming lack of interest was due to the fact that there was no opposition to President Lippincott or members W. P. Duncan, George S. Rogerson and A. C. Metcalf, all of whom were candidates for reelection. The result was as follows:

First ward—Lippincott, 7; Duncan, 7; Rogerson, 7; Metcalf, 7.

Second ward—Lippincott, 15; Duncan, 5; Rogerson, 15; Metcalf, 15.

Third ward—Lippincott, 41; Duncan, 43; Rogerson, 39; Metcalf, 42.

Fourth ward—Lippincott, 36; Duncan, 31; Rogerson, 36; Metcalf, 33.

SPECIAL SUNDAY SCHOOL WEEK ULANNED

Morgan county Sunday school workers are interested in the plans for children's week which will be observed from April 24 to May 1 by Sunday schools throughout the county. In a number of cities there will be window displays in the business district and some special exhibits, all tending to impress the importance of children's department Sunday school work. Tentative plans have been made for observance in the city and county.

COUNTY FAIR DIRECTORS HAD SESSION

Directors making preparations for the Morgan County fair next summer held a conference Saturday afternoon with Assistant County Agent H. J. Rucker at the farm bureau office on East State street. At this session a number of reports were made, all indicating the active interest which has been shown in the project and the thorough work which is being done by the committee. Fair plans are being worked out along somewhat extensive lines and the directors evidently believe that if a fair is worth having that it should be a good one.

County Agent G. B. Kendall, who attended a conference of county agents in Springfield Thursday and Friday, found the sessions of very practical value. Mr. Kendall, by the way, had reason to be proud of Morgan county when the report on membership payments was made. Morgan has a record of 99 per cent, which is the highest in the state of Illinois. These figures can be taken as an indication of the healthful condition of the farm bureau work here.

BRONZE TABLET TO MARK OLD THEATRE

John Street Playhouse Which George Washington Often Attended — Grandfather of the Elder Joe Jefferson was Player
Here.

NEW YORK, April 16.—A bronze tablet denoting the site of the John Street theater, one of the first playhouses in New York, often frequented by George Washington and other Colonial notables, was dedicated here today by the Maiden Lane Historical society.

The dedication ceremonies took place at a luncheon at the Bankers club and were attended by leaders in the theatrical profession and prominent business men,
John Drew, David Belasco and Daniel Frohman were the chief speakers.

The old playhouse whose name is perpetuated by the tablet was accessible thru an alley which has long since been blotted out
by skyscrapers that now tower
over where early actors, with powdered wigs, acting by the light of wax candles, entertained the city's theatergoers.

During the British occupation of New York City, the inscription records the house was called the Theater Royal, and in it the British officers gave entertainments. There, also, Major Andre, the famous spy, and other talented Englishmen acted in plays they wrote.

On the surrender of Cornwallis and the evacuation of New York, the house once more fell
under American management,
and on September 20, 1787, was produced "The Citizen," the first

dramatic performance given in New York after the Revolution.
Over the box George Washington occupied was the newly devised United States coat of arms.
When the house was thus honored, Thomas Wignell, the master of the theater, in full dress of black, with hair elaborately powdered in the fashion of the time, and holding two wax candles in silver candlesticks, was accustomed to receive the president at the box door and conduct
him and his party to their seats.
Joseph Jefferson, grandfather of the Joseph Jefferson, who so many ears later achieved fame as
"Rip Van Winkle," made his first appearance at this house,
February 10, 1796, as Richard in
"The Provoked Husband."

WHITE HALL POLICE AUTHORITIES PUZZLED

White Hall, April 15.—Complaints of the throwing of odor bombs have been frequent of late and the authorities have been puzzled with the proposition. Odor bombs are provided for some special purposes other than the purpose to which they have been devoted about town in recent weeks. A local druggist is now quoted as having just been made aware of the uses to which they have been put and has let it be known that if the proper authorities will come to him, he will divulge the names of the purchasers. It probably had not occurred to the authorities to make inquiry at drug stores as to such purchases. The practice has been effectually brought to a stop. Both homes and business houses have been subject to occasional attacks by these mentally dwarfed bomb throwers.

Miss Laura Conlee of Pisgah
spent Saturday in Jacksonville.

GENERALISSIMO OF GERMAN INDUSTRY

Hugo Stinnes Is Earnest and Dangerous Patriot — Said To Be Worth 1,000,000,000 Marks.

LONDON, April 16.—(By R. P.)
Hugo Stinnes, generalissimo of German industry, recently accused of plotting a strike of several hundred thousand workers in the Ruhr district to make more difficult the allied occupation of Dusseldorf, Duisburg and Ruhrort, is referred to by the Berlin correspondent of the Times as "an earnest and dangerous patriot."

Stinnes, a multimillionaire
members of the Reichstag, has put thru some of the greatest financial deals of his career since the armistice. He has been called a relentlessly efficient human calculating machine. It has been said that he would sacrifice
every mark of his enormous fortune to bring back the monarchy.
Mine owner and coal merchant,
ship owner, landed proprietor,
head of a great chain of newspapers, proprietor of the finest hotel in Berlin, trader in oils, paper,
hides, furs, and manufactured
wares of many kinds, Stinnes,
the Times correspondent says,
is today the wealthiest, most influential, best known and at the same time the least well known man in Germany.

Publicity and notoriety are alien to him, it is stated, and he prefers to remain behind the curtains in the Reichstag, permitting his henchmen and lieutenants to do the talking while he pulls the strings.

"There is nothing in his appearance to betray the man of genius," says the correspondent.
Just fifty years old, of medium height and sturdily built, with black hair and beard that show up strongly against a rather sallow complexion, Hugo Stinnes is an inconspicuous figure as he slips
in and out of the Adlon hotel, his bowler hat tilted slightly on one side, one hand in his pocket, and one or two of his secretaries following hard on the heels of their chief in his well-worn black coat and black tie. He stops to speak to no one. He has no time for small talk in the lounge with other guests. He is a relentlessly efficient, cool, human, calculating machine.

The foundations of the Stinnes
fortune were laid by the present Stinnes' grandfather and increased by his father. The youth was sent to a gymnasium and later worked as a miner and attended the School of Mines in Berlin.
Embarking in business for himself at the age of 22, his remarkable career began. He went with success into the coal and iron trade, becoming a prominent figure among the magnates of Rhenish Westphalia and branched out into the development of tramways
and electric power in the coal fields.

But his real great spring to fortune, says the Times, "came with the great war."

"His fortune before the war
was estimated at 40,000,000 gold marks. What it is now he probably could not say himself—possibly 1,000,000,000 marks." Newspapers now owned by Stinnes are said to number at least 60.
"People are eagerly asking with what ultimate object all this colossal wealth is being incessantly piled up," says the Times correspondent. "Does his present association with and financing of the Volkspartei mean that Stinnes is preparing to bring back the monarchy?"

"Stinnes," concluded the correspondent, referring to the alleged treacherous conduct of the financier
at the Brussels financial conference, "has measured himself once with allies and received a severe nubbing. He is not likely to risk a second similar rebuff. Nor is he likely to forget. Let the allies in their turn remember that, witness his unconsoling manner of the conference table, he is an earnest and dangerous patriot."

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Many cities realizing the importance of the "Y" work with the young men and boys of their homes, are raising money and constructing buildings so as to properly meet the all around need for symmetrical development.

Rochester is projecting a campaign for two new branches, an athletic field, summer camp, recreational but and completion of two upper stories of the Central building, calling for several hundred thousand dollars.

The $700,000 United Industrial branch at Bayonne, N. J., erected largely by the oil industries centering there, is to be opened with a ten-day program beginning April 8th.

Ottumwa, Iowa's $200,000
building is complete and ready for its opening.

Auburn, Maine's new building is in process of erection. Subscriptions to date amount to $290,000.

Contracts have been signed at Trenton, N. Y., at 46 cents per cubic foot, the building to cost $500,000.

Contracts are soon to be let for the Aberdeen, S. D., building estimated to cost $225,000.

To finance an organization in Parkland, a Louisville, Ky., suburb, citizens were asked for $2,000. They gave $4,300.

Churches are backing Raleigh
in a coming expense fund canvass for $10,000.

The $500,000 building at East-
on, Pa., is nearing completion, opening about July 21st. It stands at the commanding intersection
of two main streets.

Jacksonville's need and its ability to meet them is not much different from other cities. It is many cities because the people of take.

WRITES ABOUT THE VANDALIA ROAD

Franklin, April 15, 1921.

Editor Journal:
I notice in the Journal that the city is planning for a beautiful driveway thru Mauvaisterre park
and I think this would be a fine drawing card for your city. But I would like to call attention to one of the main thoroughfares entering your city, namely the Vandalia road entering the city at Nichols park. This roadway has been torn up for the past four years
and today is hardly fit to walk
over, much less drive a car over.
I would also call your attention to the Morton road near the R. S.
Wood farm. This is also full of holes and in very bad condition.
These roads need to have the attention of the man who is preparing for the driveway thru your new park.

I know your merchants like to see the outside world come and trade with them, and they can have more trade if they keep these two roads in better shape. How about the people attending the chautauqua this year and having to encounter such roads? Better get busy and fix up what's torn up first, for we can get along without the park drive for a while yet.
And the receipts at the chautauqua gates will show a decided increase if this work is given attention.

CHICAGO BUSINESS MEN TO INVESTIGATE

Will Make Effort to Get at Source of Social Disorder — Establish Middle West Division of Boy's Club Federation.

CHICAGO, April 16.—A committee of Chicago business men,
in an effort to get at the root of the causes of social disorder,
crime, industrial anarchy and other present day ills, has established the Middle West Division of the Boys' Club Federation.
International headquarters of the federation are in New York.
Its aims is the promotion of supervised club work among boys, especially those of the under-privileged class, as a means of laying foundations of intelligent Americanism and building
character for useful citizenship.
The movement is strongly developed in the East, but the Middle West and other sections of the country have been barely touched by it.

It is claimed by those interested in the movement that the supervised boys' club is the best method yet devised for greeting
at the boys from ten to twenty years of age and counteracting
the influence of demoralizing
agencies to be found in city life.

Plans are being made to strengthen existing Boy Club
work and encourage the organization of new clubs in communities where opportunity presents itself. The typical Boys' Club, approved by the Federation, provides for recreational, physical and vocational activities, frequently under some form of supervised self-government modeled upon the constitution of the United States.

A former newspaper man, S. J.
Duncan-Clark, for seven years
chief editorial writer on the Chicago Evening Post, has been appointed Managing Director of the Middlewest division.

ARMY FLED BEFORE THE WRATH OF PELE

Footprints 130 Years Old Are Found — Were Made by Invading Army.

Hilo, Island of Hawaii, T. H.—
(By A. P.)—Footprints 130 years old, of an Hawaiian army that fled from the wrath of Pele, goddess of the active volcano of Kilauea, near here, are believed to have been discovered in the Kua
desert, south of the great crater,
by Professor T. A. Jagger, Jr., in charge of the volcano observatory.
Dr. Jagger and his party were exploring a region far removed from any of the known, modern trails when they came upon an area thickly covered with the imprint of naked feet, all pointing in the one direction, all deep at the goes and light at the heels, indicating that the makers of the tracks had been running at top speed.

The tracks originally had been made in volcanic ash, which is strongly impregnated with sulphurous acid and gypsum, and which, when wet by rain, settles
into hard concrete, thus explaining the preservation of the footprints for a period believed to have stretched over more than a century and a quarter.

The Hawaiian Legend
provide the other side of the story,
the connection between the Kau desert tracks and the flight of the army of Keoua, King of Kau, from Pele's wrath.

Keoua led an army of three divisions against King Kamehameha, who later united all the Hawaiian islands under his sway in the year 1790. This year also recorded the last explosive eruption of Kilauea volcano. Hawaiian legend records the fact that some of Keoua's warriors rolled stones into Kilauea crater to mark their disrespect for the goddess of the molten lake. Whatever the reason for the outburst, Pele rose in her wrath and, with a terrific explosive eruption, totally wiped out
the second division of Keoua's
army.

The footprints found in the Kau desert are believed to be those of men in the first division who, seeing the destruction of their comrades in the rear, fled from the locality. The third division, coming up, saw the bodies of the annihilated second and halted.

The area where the footprints
were discovered is part of the new Kilauea national park, which will be dedicated this year, and steps already have been taken to enclose the traces and preserve them.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

Ground for DePauw's new athletic field was broken by a plow
drawn by students at exercises formally starting the work on March 22nd. The plow was guided by former coach E. C. Buss and DePauw's new coach, Fred W.
Walker. After this, ground was broken with a new spade by Mr.
and Mrs. Ira W. Blackstock, whose gift of $25,000 made the new field possible, and by Miss Blackstock, President Grose and Mr. Roy West of Chicago, vice-president of the board of trustees.
Immediately following the ceremony, the DePauw band gave a concert on the Greencastle public square.

A study made by Trevor Arnett
one of the secretaries of the General Education Board, of teachers'
salaries in certain endowed colleges and universities brings out
the following facts:

Salaries paid to 8,540 college
teachers, ranging from instructors to full professors, in 259 institutions in all parts of the country in 1914-15 are compared with salaries paid in 1919-20. In 1919-20 33.4% received from $901 to $2,100 per year. Of those receiving over $2,100, about 6% received more than $4,200 a year. Only 32 received over $6,000. These salaries include an increase of 25% between 1914 and 1919. Meanwhile, according to the United States Commissioner of Labor, the cost of living has increased not less than 80 to 90 per cent. Sixty-

DISPEPSIA IS GREATEST ENEMY OF MODERN MAN

Distressing Malady is Most Prevalent of all Present-Day Diseases—Thousands Are Relieved By Tanlac.

Of all the conditions that afflict humanity, chronic dyspepsia, or what is more commonly known as indigestion, is probably the most prevalent.

This most universal malady has baffled the medical profession for years, and the most skilled specialists have been unable to cope with it successfully.

Hours might be consumed in describing the sufferings, mental and physical, of the sufferers from chronic dyspepsia and their failure heretofore to get relief. A morbid, unreal, whimsical and melancholy condition of the mind, aside from the nervousness and physical suffering, is the usual condition of the average dyspeptic.

Dyspepsia, or indigestion, as the case may be, is usually caused by the eating of too much or unsuitable food, and the mucous membrane of the stomach becomes irritated, and there is set up an acute or sub-acute gastric catarrh condition which prevents the proper digestion of the food.

This food is apt to ferment and decompose, and as a result the familiar distressing symptoms of dyspepsia may arise. In mild cases there is nothing more than an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, with a certain amount of depression, headache, loss of appetite, perhaps belching of gas and occasional vomiting. There may be also accompanying intestinal symptoms, such as constipation, pain in the back, colic, etc.

There may be only the familiar heartburn due to the inflammation of the stomach from excessive gases of fermentation or putrefaction. In the most severe cases—those that last over a day or two—the symptoms enumerated may be much more intense. The distress may be marked and the general constitutional symptoms more evident.

When this stage is reached the loss of appetite, the mental depression, and this general uncomfortable feeling in the stomach are much more pronounced. This is particularly true in acute gastritis.

It frequently occurs from continued errors in diet that this condition becomes chronic, and the symptoms persist for an indefinite period. The appetite is very apt to be varied, but at times very good. Heartburn is frequent, if not constant. The stomach is painful on pressure, the tongue is coated, there is a bad taste in the mouth, and there are changes in the amount of salivary secretion. Constipation is also usually present, although diarrhoea may alternate.

Most cases of dyspepsia can be cured if the diet is properly looked after and with the proper treatment. Proper eating, the proper amount of food and hygienic living are the most important features of the treatment. Most people eat too fast and eat too much.

One noted authority has said that the stomach is the fountain head of health or disease, as the case may be. Tanlac was designed primarily for the regulation of the stomach, liver and bowels, but it is no uncommon thing for persons who have used it to find that they have also been relieved of rheumatism and other ailments not generally recognized as having their origin in stomach trouble.

There is probably not a single portion of the body that is not benefited by the helpful action of Tanlac which begins its work by stimulating the digestive organs, thereby enriching the blood and invigorating the whole system. Next it enables the weak, worn-out stomach to thoroughly digest the food, permitting the assimilation of the nourishing elements.

Millions of people have not only been relieved of the most obstinate forms of dyspepsia an indigestion by the Tanlac treatment after other remedies had failed, but many of them have reported a remarkable and rapid return to normal health and strength by its use.—Adv.

At Annual Meeting of Mississippi Valley Historical Association, April 14-16, at Madison, Wis.

Madison, Wis., April 16.—(By A. P.)—The history of the Mississippi Valley running back about 300 years, will be told at the annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association at its meeting here on April 14, 15 and 16.

From the time when De Soto, with his handful of Spanish soldiers, explored the unknown regions of the southern valley and left his body in the waters of the great river, down to the present day, when industries and farms and commerce produce the wealth that De Soto sought, is a story of development that has been insufficiently known and incompletely told," says Dr. George N. Fuller, secretary of the association. "It is a tale abounding in romance."

"Back in the days when Cabeza de Vaca and his three companions marched across country from Florida to Mexico and Friar Marcos with Little Steve, his negro scout, discovered the cities of Cibola and their fabled treasures and paved the way for the expedition of Coronado, the valley of the Mississippi was a land that loomed big in the dreams of the Spaniard. A century later Indian tales of a great river flowing down to the sea came to the ears of the French Jesuits, preaching in the wilderness and along the rivers and lakes of Canada. Priest and fur trader listened to the tales and from the north there came down into the valley Radisson and Grosseilliers, Marquette and Joliet, Father Hennepin and the fur hunter, Duluth La Salle and his trusty lieutenant, Henry de Tonti.

"These men found that instead of flowing into the Vermillion sea, which we know now as the Gulf of California, the river emptied its waters into the Gulf of Mexico. Following the explorations came settlements, at the mouth and here and there on the banks of the river. Forts grew into villages. The jealous Indian protested, waged the only kind of warfare he knew, and lost; French, Spanish and Americans struggled for possession, and international treaties tossed the right of ownership of the western valley back and forth like a shuttlecock.

"New Orleans and Natchez, Kaskaskia and St. Louis became known in the east. Floods of migrations began to find their way down the westward flowing rivers. Political institutions grew up, industries took root and thrived, towns grew into cities and the Mississippi valley took a place in the nation, the importance of which politically, commercially and industrially is just beginning to be realized.

"Who shall search out and keep the record of this great growth? The eastern historian cannot tell the tale for he does not realize what has been done. The task belongs to the valley, and for this end the Mississippi Valley Historical association has come into being.

"An English writer recently said the Middle West is the true America. They say Orientalism of New York, the rigid dignities of Boston, the laughter and languors of the South—these things are not essentially American. The true America is in the Middle West—the Far West is still too great an extent a pioneer country, just as the East is too great an extent a traditional country. The true American spirit is a blend of traditionalism and pioneering, and that is what is found in the Middle West.

"Again, the same writer says: 'The Middle West can afford to trust a future of which the present is merely the vestibule. I like to think of the time when the ledges between the lakes have been dredged out, and when the fleets of the world will come sailing up the St. Lawrence, through the lakes, and moor at Chicago, there to unload the spices of India and the caviar of the Black Sea. Mass and space; that defines the Middle West.'"

"These men found that instead of flowing into the Vermillion sea, which we know now as the Gulf of California, the river emptied its waters into the Gulf of Mexico. Following the explorations came settlements, at the mouth and here and there on the banks of the river. Forts grew into villages. The jealous Indian protested, waged the only kind of warfare he knew, and lost; French, Spanish and Americans struggled for possession, and international treaties tossed the right of ownership of the western valley back and forth like a shuttlecock.

"New Orleans and Natchez, Kaskaskia and St. Louis became known in the east. Floods of migrations began to find their way down the westward flowing rivers. Political institutions grew up, industries took root and thrived, towns grew into cities and the Mississippi valley took a place in the nation, the importance of which politically, commercially and industrially is just beginning to be realized.

"Who shall search out and keep the record of this great growth? The eastern historian cannot tell the tale for he does not realize what has been done. The task belongs to the valley, and for this end the Mississippi Valley Historical association has come into being.

"An English writer recently said the Middle West is the true America. They say Orientalism of New York, the rigid dignities of Boston, the laughter and languors of the South—these things are not essentially American. The true America is in the Middle West—the Far West is still too great an extent a pioneer country, just as the East is too great an extent a traditional country. The true American spirit is a blend of traditionalism and pioneering, and that is what is found in the Middle West.

"Again, the same writer says: 'The Middle West can afford to trust a future of which the present is merely the vestibule. I like to think of the time when the ledges between the lakes have been dredged out, and when the fleets of the world will come sailing up the St. Lawrence, through the lakes, and moor at Chicago, there to unload the spices of India and the caviar of the Black Sea. Mass and space; that defines the Middle West.'"

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY HISTORY TO BE TOLD

At Annual Meeting of Mississippi Valley Historical Association, April 14-16, at Madison, Wis.

Madison, Wis., April 16.—(By A. P.)—The history of the Mississippi Valley running back about 300 years, will be told at the annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association at its meeting here on April 14, 15 and 16.

From the time when De Soto, with his handful of Spanish soldiers, explored the unknown regions of the southern valley and left his body in the waters of the great river, down to the present day, when industries and farms and commerce produce the wealth that De Soto sought, is a story of development that has been insufficiently known and incompletely told," says Dr. George N. Fuller, secretary of the association. "It is a tale abounding in romance."

"Back in the days when Cabeza de Vaca and his three companions marched across country from Florida to Mexico and Friar Marcos with Little Steve, his negro scout, discovered the cities of Cibola and their fabled treasures and paved the way for the expedition of Coronado, the valley of the Mississippi was a land that loomed big in the dreams of the Spaniard. A century later Indian tales of a great river flowing down to the sea came to the ears of the French Jesuits, preaching in the wilderness and along the rivers and lakes of Canada. Priest and fur trader listened to the tales and from the north there came down into the valley Radisson and Grosseilliers, Marquette and Joliet, Father Hennepin and the fur hunter, Duluth La Salle and his trusty lieutenant, Henry de Tonti.

"These men found that instead of flowing into the Vermillion sea, which we know now as the Gulf of California, the river emptied its waters into the Gulf of Mexico. Following the explorations came settlements, at the mouth and here and there on the banks of the river. Forts grew into villages. The jealous Indian protested, waged the only kind of warfare he knew, and lost; French, Spanish and Americans struggled for possession, and international treaties tossed the right of ownership of the western valley back and forth like a shuttlecock.

GREENE COUNTY FARMER POINTS OUT NEED

James Pratt Calls Attention to Need of Hired Hacks in White Hall for Convenience of Farmers.

White Hall, April 15.—James Pratt, a farmer, commenting on the donation of over $600 to a base ball fund by the business men of White Hall, sees inconsistency that is much more than amusing to him who speaks from the standpoint of a farmer who transacts a great deal of business in White Hall. He calls special attention to the fact that if the business people of White Hall have hundreds of dollars to donate to base ball (Sunday base ball at that), surely these same business men are alive enough and broad enough to scout the value of an equal investment in providing facilities in the way of hired hacks that are so sadly needed by those who drive to town to transact business.

The curtailment of hired hacks facilities at White Hall is a matter that Mr. Pratt looks upon with a great deal of concern, and he speaks for the large rural population who still drive horses to town. On this point he emphasizes the fact that the auto is not entitled to consideration exclusive of horse-drawn vehicles, and that as one devotee of the horse (and there are many around White Hall) he wishes to see that the auto will never fully transplant the horse.

Mr. Pratt never talks unless he has something sensible to say, and this is the most timely expression that has been uttered in connection with civic interests in recent weeks. The interests of the horse must be safeguarded against the encroachment of the auto, and there is a national organization that is represented at White Hall, the objects of which are to look to the best interests of the horse as the most economical source of power and locomotion.

SOUTH JACKSONVILLE TO OBSERVE HEALTH PROMOTION WEEK.

The Village of South Jacksonville at its last meeting of the board of trustees decided to observe Health Promotion week as outlined by the State Board of Health.

In carrying out this plan, the village will, April 20th and 21st remove, free of charge from in front of the residences, all indestructible rubbish which the residents may wish carted away. The board expects every householder to make a general clean-up around his or her premises, filling up all unsightly and unsanitary holes, burning all rubbish then can be burned, and in doing everything that may in any manner promote the health of the village.

Special emphasis is laid on the matter of destroying breeding places of flies. Removal of manure piles and other rubbish will reduce the fly family by thousands, and add greatly to the comfort of everyone.

Why You Must Have Iron to Make Your Body Strong and Your Brain Keen

Alert and Powerful—Value of Spinach and Organic Iron to Help Make Rich Red Blood and Revitalize Wornout Exhausted Nerves

WITH PLENTY OF BLOOD AND IRON, YOUR BRAIN is the most wonderful thing in all creation but without these it is nothing. IRON TAKES OXYGEN from your lungs and carries it to your brain. Without iron your brain gets no oxygen; and without plenty of rich red blood and oxygen your brain becomes dull and heavy, YOUR INTELLECT POOR, your memory fails, YOU DO FOOLISH THINGS, make bad decisions and you really amount to nothing, so far as accomplishing anything of importance is concerned.

Also without iron YOUR BLOOD BECOMES THIN AND WATERY and loses its power to change food into living cells and tissue and therefore nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good—you do not get the full strength of it.

THERE ARE 30,000,000,000,000 RED BLOOD CORPUSCLES IN YOU BLOOD AND EACH ONE MUST HAVE IRON.

When, as a result of iron starvation you get tired in the morning, when you find yourself nervous, irritable and easily upset; when you can no longer do your day's work; when you are all fagged out at night, when your digestion all goes wrong, or you have pains cross the back and your face looks pale and drawn, do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration, or until in your weakened condition you contract some serious disease, but eat more spinach and other iron-containing vegetables and take organic iron with them to help enrich your blood and revitalize your wornout exhausted nerves. But be sure that the iron you take is organic iron and not metallic or mineral iron which people usually take. Organic iron is like the iron in your blood and like iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron. Organic iron may be had from your druggist and the name of NUXATED IRON. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly concentrated form that one dose is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating half a quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain perfect satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists.

NUXATED IRON ENRICHES THE BLOOD, GIVES YOU NEW STRENGTH AND ENERGY.

WANTED

Girls to work in the finishing department of our Woolen Mill.—J. Capps & Sons, Ltd.

MRS. MARY BLATCHFORD DIES AT PORTLAND, ME. News was recently received by President Rammelkamp of the death of Mrs. Mary Emily Blatchford at Portland, Me., on March 30. Mrs. Blatchford was the widow of E. W. Blatchford, '45, one of the most prominent alumni of the college among the earlier classes.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Blatchford were always greatly interested in Illinois college. The most recent manifestation of that interest was the donation of the Blatchford memorial organ in the recital hall at the conservatory. Mrs. Blatchford's son, Edward W. Blatchford is at present a trustee of the college.

Mrs. Paul Sheppard is in Chicago for a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. W. T. Kedney.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC NOTES

Mrs. Lois Baptiste Harsch, pianist, who appeared with success at the annual concert of the Jacksonville Woman's Club, is a post-graduate of the College of Music. It is with a sense of pride and gratification that the colleges witnesses the manner in which their graduates continue to reap success in their chosen art.

The entire student body was aroused to enthusiasm by the playing of Miss Alma Melus at chapel Saturday morning. Her program was chosen from the classicists. She has a tremendous volume of tone at her command—a tone capable of deepest tenderness and great dramatic heights. Her climaxes are thrilling.

The music she chose—Beethoven, Bach and Chopin—not only makes great technical demands but requires a depth of musical understanding which she possesses. Miss Alma may feel sure of a hearty welcome whenever she may appear again.

Because of the many requests for summer work Director Henry Ward Pearson will remain here in Jacksonville and teach piano and organ during the summer months.

High Grade Tailored-to-Measure SUITS NOW ONLY $38.50

The above is the heading of a large advertisement run by us in this paper last Sunday and Thursday. The response began early Monday morning and has continued most satisfactorily, proving conclusively that the public needs and wants merchandise and will buy when prices seem right—when it is thought that the bottom has been reached for this season on quality material.

This is Not a "Sale"

But a New Low Price Established on 3-piece Spring and Summer Suits

Spring Clothes and Thrift

Thrift is all right if you know how to apply it, but many do not. The placing of money where it will do the most good is actual thrift. What do you think of a shop girl with silk stockings who has a soda for lunch, of the bargain hunting woman with a house full of junk, of the man who is a tightwad at home and a spender outside, of the lad who lives in a hall room and rides in a flivver? Is their thrift sound?

I am making today as good a customs made suit as you can buy anywhere—a suit serviceable, well fitting, stylish, useful to the last degree—making it for a very low price and putting my years of experience and my reputation into that suit and back of it. Is it thrift to buy less than this for perhaps more money?

ALBERT RENNEN,
President.

Make Your Selection Early

The materials that we are offering for your selection are genuine high-grade Worsteds of seasonable weight, in various light and dark patterns, material that is guaranteed to wear well and to hold the shape and style in which is made up.

You must realize that our price of $38.50 for a tailored-to-measure suit of this quality is a distinct departure from the prices it has been necessary to charge during the past two or three years, and it will be possible to continue it only so long as our weekly output of finished suits reaches the mark we had set when first making the announcement of a reduction.

Of course at the price we purchased these Worsteds (and we are promised more at the same figures if we need them) we expected to make some reduction. But we concluded that now is the time to establish again pre-war prices, believing the public would buy in numbers sufficient to enable us to maintain the price set, and so far our faith has been justified.

A certain profit is necessary in order to keep any business going and if the output continues small the selling cost is high, but as production increases selling costs correspondingly decrease.

Remember, $38.50 is the price for these high-grade materials made up into a 3-piece suit and includes the best of workmanship and trimmings—and, satisfaction guaranteed. This price is lower than some of these patterns could have been sold for before the advent of high prices.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

A number of friends have given the college flowers and shrubs during the last few weeks; Mrs. O. B. Cannon presented some roses; Dr. and Mrs. Wait some especially fine dahlias; and other friends some dog wood trees which were received Friday morning.

President Barker is spending several days in Ohio in the interests of the college.

About fourteen of the students took advantage of the rates to Chicago; they were accompanied by Miss Knopf of the faculty.

Dr. J. W. Haueher, representing the Board of Education and his assistant, Miss Winifred Willard, are expected at the college the latter part of the month. They will confer with the students and faculty in regard to the starting of the endowment campaign. Miss Willard will be remembered by many of her Jacksonville friends as the daughter of Dr. J. P. Willard, who formerly lived in the house now occupied by Dr. J. W. Haueher on East State St.

One of the events of the week was the faculty tea given in honor of the alumnae on Monday afternoon in the social room. It was one of the most successful affairs ever held at the college, and was an indication of what can be accomplished along this line. A full account of this has already appeared in both papers.

Miss Esther Harper's recital Friday afternoon was attended by an unusually large number of friends and others interested in the work of the Department of Expression. Miss Harper is quite talented and her work

Friday afternoon is deserving of special commendation.

Bachelor degree graduates of the Woman's College are now eligible for membership in the Association of Collegiate Alumnae. Those in Jacksonville especially will be interested in this as it gives them special social advantages which heretofore have been enjoyed by graduates of only a few of the colleges of the middle west.

All friends of the college will regret to learn of the serious illness of Edmund Blackburn, the oldest member of the Board of Trustees. Mr. Blackburn has been rather feeble for some time but it is hoped that he will be spared to his friends and the college for further usefulness and advice. Mr. Blackburn hauled timbers for the first building of the college when construction was begun in 1850.

Miss Knopf is honored in being one of the artists represented in the first annual International Exhibition of water color paintings now being shown at the Chicago Art Institute.

Her picture is a decorative study called "Spring Flower Motif." The exhibition continues until May 15 and it is regarded by its sponsors as the most important water color exhibition ever held in America. English, French, Danish, Dutch, Russian, and American painters are represented.

ed, as well as one of the Japanese moderns.

Miss Knopf has taken a group of her art students to Chicago to study the several exhibitions that opened at the Art Institute this week.

A group of Miss Knopf's paintings, mainly pictures of Gloucester subjects, is on exhibition in the social room, main building at the Woman's College. The exhibition is open to the public and may be seen in the afternoon and evening.

Miss Corinne Chapin enrolled for work in the Art Department this week.

NEW Q. TIME CARD AFFECTS WHITE HALL

Card to Go Into Effect May 1 Brings Night Train from St. Louis Two Hours Later Than at Present—Little Effect on Jacksonville Line.

White Hall, April 15.—A new time card will go into effect on the Burlington May 1st, and it will bring the night St. Paul train out of St. Louis about two hours later than at present, about 10 p. m., passing White Hall about 1:05 a. m. It is proposed also to place a Chicago sleeper in service on this train in addition to the St. Paul sleeper, but as a Chicago proposition it is being argued that running the train two hours later makes it of doubtful value as a Chicago train thru this section in connection with the daylight saving law in Chicago making its arrival there past mid-morning. If that arrival at Chicago can be made about as it is now, a Chicago sleeper would be a strong competitor to the C. and A., thru this section, as much of the Chicago travel from Carrollton and White Hall goes to Roodhouse for the Hummer.

Another feature of the new Burlington time card will be of interest in railroad circles, in that local freight trains will not be scheduled. They will be given a leaving time from division points, and will be run as extra trains. This is a new idea in train operation, and it is being met with general approval. The last time card on the Burlington is No. 7, issued July 11th, 1920. It probably will have little effect on the Jacksonville line further than the new method of operating the local freight trains.
